

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR JEWISH EDUCATORS

Strengthening identity, Empowering educators,
Shaping the future

Experience an immersive, hands-on seminar at ANU – Museum of the Jewish People.

Our in-person half or full day program is designed for Jewish educators across all educational settings: day schools, supplementary Hebrew schools, youth movements, informal Jewish educational centers, and more. Join a transformative journey which will enrich you both with deep content and practical tools to inspire your classroom and community.

Why Now? Why ANU?

In a world reshaped by October 7th, educators are on the frontlines of Jewish resilience and renewal. Our seminar addresses today's pressing needs with innovative and relevant approaches to Jewish Peoplehood education – empowering educators to foster belonging, identity, and action.

What's Included?

Interactive Gallery Experience

Step into 2,000 years of Jewish history and engage in open, facilitated conversations on resilience, responsibility, and continuity.

Expert Lectures

Be inspired by thought leaders in Jewish Peoplehood education offering insight into today's challenges and tomorrow's possibilities.

Deep-Dive Workshops

Explore ANU's unique methodology and learn how to adapt the museum's educational philosophy to your school's goals.

Join the Global Network

Organizations like HUC, Masa, JFNA, JCC North America, London School of Jewish Studies, Taglit-Birthright, iCenter, Jewish Education Project and many more have already brought their teams to ANU.

Practical Tools for the Classroom

Gain access to ready-to-use programs: My Family Story, Jewish Resilience Project, Hope Kit Jr., and more. Leave with strategies and materials to implement immediately.

Flexible & Customizable

- Suitable for all Jewish educational backgrounds
- Kosher catering and room rentals available on site
- Interested in a program at your school or community? We'll come to you!

Book Your Group Today

Contact Lindsay Shapiro ✉ lindsay@anumuseum.org.il 🌐 www.anumuseum.org.il