

Ilan Ramon's Personal Treasures

Name _____

Ilan Ramon used the following values to guide him through life: responsibility, family, Israel, Judaism, and the Jewish people.

Instructions:

- Choose 3 of the 7 personal treasures Ilan Ramon took with him to space.
- In each of the 3 speech bubbles above Ilan Ramon, write the name of the item, the value(s) that the item represents, and how that item represents the designated value(s).
- In the astronaut's helmet, draw your face. In the star above their helmet write which personal treasure you would bring to space, what value it represents, and how the item represents that value.

Seven treasures Ilan Ramon took with him to space

1. Family photo
2. Kosher meals
3. Letters from his family to read while in space
4. Mezuzah
5. Microfiche of all five books of the Torah, gifted to Ramon by President of Israel, Moshe Katzav.
6. Drawing titled "Moon Landscape" by Peter Ginz, a 14-year-old victim of the Auschwitz concentration camp
7. One-dollar bill from the Lubavitcher Rebbe

