

Activity: Be a Mitzvah Man!

- Listen and read the words of the song Mitzvah Man.
- Choose your favorite option:

- ❖ Children outline one another's bodies on big pieces of bulletin board paper. They draw pictures or write mitzvot inside the outline of their own bodies of things that they have done i.e. make a card for someone who is sick; help clear the table after dinner, etc.
- ❖ Make one big outline of a child with a cap labeled Mitzvah Kid. Add a big red cape. Using sticky notes, children write or draw mitzvot that they have done and put them on Mitzvah Kid's cape.
- ❖ Teacher has a child-sized red cape with Mitzvah Kid written on it. A child who is recognized when doing a mitzvah gets to wear the cape for the day.

Mitzvah Man

A poor man was once walking down a crowded avenue, he tripped over a wallet, what was he to do?

Well, he took the wallet to the police station then, and there Officer O'Grady said, "It's nice when people care."

Because of his good deed, a light came from above.

The voice of God said, "You will be someone who spread all of my mitzvot, teaching the do's and the don'ts. I'm living in this world the way good people ought to live. You are now Mitzvah Man, Mitzvah Man, Mitzvah Man.

It's no sin to be like him, he is Mitzvah Man

A Mitzvah type who's doing it right. He's Mitzvah Man.

So now he has the power to do good wherever he goes. As he helps his neighbor, well, the love just grows and grows. Because that's the job of mitzvot, treating folks in loving ways. Also, when repairing this world for all our days. If someone's in trouble you know what you must do, remember there's a Mitzvah boy or girl inside of you. You could be like Mitzvah Man, lend a helping hand, feed the hungry, visit the sick, do the best you can, like our friend, Mitzvah Man.

Mitzvah Man, Mitzvah Man

It's no sin to be like him, he is Mitzvah Man.

A Mitzvah type who's doing it right. He's Mitzvah Man.

Get ready to rock, he is on your block, he's Mitzvah Man.

Mitzvah Man, Mitzvah Man, I think he is here. Look in the mirror, it's Mitzvah Man.
