Individual Journaling Reflections

Directions: Individually reflect on the questions below and write down your thoughts. You may want to turn your camera off to better concentrate.

Part I: At the starting line.

1. What are people really looking for right now related to learning and celebrating Israel?
2. Where are you right now with your planning?
3. What is holding you back (aside from the obvious)? What challenges do you have?
4. What are the desired Know / Do / Feel outcomes for this year

Part II: Mapping Your Environment.

Consider your desired Know / Feel / Do outcomes as you reflect:

How is Israel currently evident in the arc of your year?	What are additional possibilities?

Part III: Reflection

Individually reflect on the questions below. Write down your thoughts, and be prepared to share with your group. You may want to turn your camera off to concentrate.

1. Consider what you heard and learned about these frames. What concept stands out most for you?
2. How do you think you can integrate one or more of these concepts into your current teaching of Israel?
3. Who or what is supporting you to get there?
4. What is one piece of advice you could give yourself?
