Israel Interactive Educational Games (r) – Abby Pitkowsky

Links to Israel Interactive Educational Games

Enjoy these two interactive virtual educational games. They can be played with one large group, or in smaller break out groups. All that is required is for one person to share their screen so the game is visible to all participants. Simply click on the link and start playing and learning!

Genial.ly is a platform to create interactive content. A basic account is free, and more advanced levels have a fee. See more at <https://www.genial.ly/>
